

Assignment of the Chairman

The chairman of the jury will

- have a meeting with the PDN Executive Coordinator about the practical process and the current rules and registration prior to any contact with the other jury members.
- have all the artistic contact with the jury members and prepare the jury of the process prior to the competition.
- take care of the jury on site and make sure the jury follow the rules and regulation including not to socialize with any competitors, staff of competitor schools or other people who may could influence the jury or be perceived as unequal
- leads the work of the jury meetings on site
- summarizes the jury's overall feedback assessment which the jury's administrative coordinator will document for the feedback sessions
- host a jury dinner one of the days on site

All practical contact with the jury prior to the competition will be done through the PDN Deputy Executive Coordinator. On site the PDN Jury Coordinator will assist the chairman and the rest of the jury members.